

WATER LILIES

There are some water lilies in a lake.

The area that they cover doubles in size every day.

After 17 days the whole lake is covered with water lilies.

How long did it take them to cover half the lake?

HELP

This problem is easy. Don't look for any complicated method to find the answer.

NEXT

What fraction of the pond was covered on the first day?